

The Attendance Boundary for Rural Point Elementary School 2008

The school attendance boundary for Rural Point Elementary School shall include all the streets and subdivisions within the following area:

Beginning at the intersection of Chamberlayne and Rural Point Roads the boundary line shall follow Chamberlayne Road (Route 301) north to the Pamunkey River/Hanover/Caroline County border. The boundary line shall turn east/southeast following the Pamunkey River, separating Hanover, Caroline and King William Counties, to Mechanicsville Turnpike (Route 360). The boundary line shall turn west/southwest and follow Mechanicsville Turnpike (Route 360) to Pole Green Road. The boundary line shall turn west following Pole Green Road to a point just east of Knight Drive. From this point east of Knight Drive go north to Totopotomoy Creek. The boundary line shall turn west and follow the Totopotomoy Creek beyond Rural Point Road to Strawhorn Creek. The boundary line shall turn west following the Strawhorn Creek to the Robin Ridge subdivision, turning north and following the property lines dividing Robin Ridge and Burkwood Club Drive to intersect with Studley Road. The boundary line shall turn west following Studley Road to Burkwood Club Drive, then cross Studley Road at Burkwood Club Drive and proceed between Swannanoa Estates and Berkley Forest Subdivisions following the property line and intersecting with the Opossum Creek. The boundary line shall follow the Opossum Creek to the confluence with the Totopotomoy Creek. At the confluence of the Opossum and Totopotomoy Creeks, the boundary line shall turn west following the Totopotomoy Creek to Chamberlayne Road (Route 301), turn north and proceed to the Chamberlayne/Rural Point/New Ashcake Road intersection.

Residents that live on Rural Point Road between Pole Green Road and Totopotomoy Creek and in Strawhorn subdivision will attend Rural Point Elementary.
